CIRCULAR

Sub Restriction on Charging Repeater Fees more than once for students appearing for Supplementary Exams.

It has come to the notice of the University that some medical colleges are charging repeater fees multiple times from students appearing for supplementary examinations. In this regard, institutions are hereby directed not to charge the repeater fee more than once for students appearing for the same supplementary examinations.

Colleges must ensure that students are not subjected to additional financial burdens beyond the prescribed fee structure. Any deviation from this directive will be viewed seriously, and appropriate action will be taken as per university norms.

All affiliated medical colleges are requested to display this circular on their notice boards and inform the students accordingly
