Sub: Instructions to the students who are getting admitted PG courses for the academic year 2023-24

It is observed that many students apply for the eligibility certificate towards getting admission to post graduate courses by the affiliated colleges of Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences for academic year 2023-24. In this regard, the students submit the eligibility certificate along with necessary documents viz, all year marks card, Degree certificate/PDC, etc., along with council registration certificate of their respective state.

In view of the above and as per the apex bodies directions, PG students should register in Karnataka state council during their study period.

The university is being forced to inform the students (other than RGUHS) to register their degree in Karnataka State Council and submit the copy for eligibility certificate application who are taking admission in PG courses under colleges affiliated to Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, Karnataka.

Accordingly, the University is hereby requesting the Principals of all the affiliated postgraduate colleges and students who have obtained degree other than RGUHS are hereby informed to require to submit/ reupload after obtaining Karnataka State Council Registration Certificate within a month.

The Principals are also instructed to strictly follow the University's instructions henceforth.
