

Dr. Sharanaparakash Rudrappa Patil is the Pro Chancellor of Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, Karnataka & Minister for Medical Education in the Govt. of Karnataka

Dr. Patil is a current MLA, representing the Sedam constituency in Gulbarga District. He is a doctor by profession and holds a Master's Degree in Dermatology

Dr. Sharanprakash Patil was born on 20th April 1967, the fourth child of Rudrappa Patil and Maalakamma Patil, a freedom fighter family hails from Udagi village in Sedam taluk, Kalburgi district.

He has his education at the prestigious Sharana Basaveshwara Mahavidyalaya at Kalburgi. Early signs of a good leader were evident in his pre-university days as he took up the responsibilities as Chief Secretary for the Students' Union. He continued in a student leadership role while studying medicine at the prestigious Gulbarga Institute of Medical Sciences. Dr. Sharan Prakash Patil committed himself to the student unions but he never let it interfere with his academics.

Today, Dr. Sharanprakash Patil is a reputed Dermatologist in India's medical practices and academia and the Hon'ble Minister for Medical Education in the State Government led by the Hon'ble Chief Minister Shri Siddaramaiah