

Dr K. Ram mohan Reddy, obtained M.P.H degree in 2010 from the Colorado School of Public Health, University of Colorado Denver, USA. His MPH dissertation work was on spatial distribution of COPD (Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease) hospitalization cost in the state of Colorado, USA. He received scholarship from the Eta Sigma Gamma at University of Northern Colorado (UNC) for his dedication and outstanding service.

Later he obtained MD (Microbiology) degree in 2015 from Vijayanagara Institute of Medical Sciences, Bellary, Karnataka. His dissertation work was on comparing three screening methods for the detection of biofilm formation among clinical isolates of Staphylococcus.

He worked as Assistant Professor in Microbiology at the Basaveshwara Medical College, Chitradurga, Karnataka, during 2015-16. He is working at this institute from January,2017. His areas of interest include hospital infection control, antibiotic policy, mapping of diseases, and biomedical waste management.

